Fedex Settles Charges For Unlicensed Exports

In 2012, Washington – FedEx Express (FedEx), Memphis, TN, paid $370,000 civil penalty for six violations of the Export Administration Regulations (EAR) relating to FedEx's provision of freight forwarding services to exporters.

The Department of Commerce's Bureau of Industry and Security, US alleged that FedEx caused, aided and abetted acts prohibited by the regulations when it:

- In 2006 facilitated attempted unlicensed export of electronic components from the United States to Dubai, United Arab Emirates.
- In 2005, facilitated the unlicensed export of flight simulation software to Beijing University of Aeronautics and Astronautics, a/k/a Beihang University, China, an organization listed on the U.S. Department of Commerce's Entity List.
- In 2004, facilitated the unlicensed export of printer components from the United States to end users in Syria

MULTILATERAL SANCTION

"It is vital that every stakeholder in exporting chain remain vigilant in its efforts to prevent prohibited transactions that may be detrimental to our global security, and each will be held accountable if it fails to do so."

Freight Forwarder – Conspiracy Facilitating Export Of Goods To Iran

In 2012 New Jersey - Ulrich Davis, Dutch citizen, a former manager of a Netherlands Freight Forwarding Company pleaded guilty for conspiring to facilitate illegal export of controlled goods to Iran in 2007 and 2008.

The company was affiliated with a New York-based freight-forwarding company.

Davis facilitated shipments to be made to Iran without authorization from the US government.

He completed an air waybill that represented certain acrylic adhesives and spray paint coatings obtained from a New Jersey company were to be forwarded on behalf of the co-conspirator's company to a company in Iran.

In 2008 e-mail regarding the shipments, Davis noted that, "99% of these goods were destined to be send to Teheran/Iran, which was and still is a very difficult destination due to political reasons. We have handled shipments to Teheran for various customers who had to shut down their operation because they were doing business with Teheran /Iran and inspite of the risk we take we always handled your shipments in a good manner."
