

TYPES OF PERMITS UNDER STRATEGIC TRADE ACT 2010

- 1. Single-use permit
 - A one-time export, transit or transshipment permit for a country or destination.
- 2. Bulk permit
 - A multiple exports, transit or transshipment permit for a single country or destination.
 - An application for Bulk permit is only considered if the company applying for the permit has an Internal Compliance Program (ICP) approved by the Strategic Trade Secretariat.
- 3. Multiple-use permit
 - A multiple exports, transit or transshipment permit for different countries or destinations.
 - An application for Multiple-use permit is only considered if the company applying for the permit has an Internal Compliance Program (ICP) approved by the Strategic Trade Secretariat.
- 4. Special permit
 - A single-use export, transit or transshipment permit to a restricted end-user.

For brokering activities of strategic items, a person needs to obtain the certificate of brokers for strategic items.

